

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Who We Are

Living Hope Ranch is a non-profit, 12 month, faith-based residential program for female teen's, 13-17, who are struggling with life-controlling issues. We offer a structured environment that fosters personal growth and prepares residents for success in their relationships and careers.

Our Vision

Empowering teenage girls to become strong confident women.

Our Mission

Assisting teenage girls with life-controlling issues by teaching them to confront life's challenges and equipping them with the tools to make positive lifestyle choices using a Christ-centered approach.

Our Program

We believe that all youth, with appropriate help, have the capacity to grow beyond the limits of a traumatic past or a risk-filled environment and become significant contributors to their communities. Our key focus is on the areas of: Mentoring, Life Skills, Education, Faith.

Equine Program

We also offer an Equine component that involves taking proactive measures and using innovative strategies to better prepare the youth of today and empower them with skills and support to conquer the negative influences that surround them. This unique program helps the girls by exploring alternatives to negative activities and behaviors. The program is enhanced by life skills lessons that focus on peer pressure, positive communication, problem-solving, conflict resolution and other teen social needs.

Location

Living Hope Ranch is located at Diamond Willow Retreat. We exist in a rural context in a small community within the shadow of the Cypress Hills in southwest Saskatchewan.
